Review #9359456 "Simply Perfect"

My husband and I decided that we wanted to have our wedding in York. After searching for accommodations we decided that this house would be perfect. After looking through the pictures for months, the day finally arrived when we got to check in. We met with Ed and he gave us a full tour of the house. He was SO helpful and accommodating. The house is stunning. Every room is beautifully decorated and SOO clean. The entire house was immaculate. We had 20 guests staying with us any there was plenty of room. Everyone slept great and there were plenty of bathrooms for all guests to use. The location of the house is within walking distance to downtown, Nubble Light and Brown's Ice Cream. I honestly don't think we could have found a better location if we tried. I highly recommend this house to anyone who wants a perfect retreat.

Happy beyond measure, we write a poem
The Sand and Surf feels just like home
The rolling waves, sunshine and harvest moon
Leave us hoping we will return very soon.

Ed and Barbara have thought of everything and supplied at least two
We were delighted to find 1, 2, 3, 4 corkscrews
Two dishwashers, two fridges and 25 beds
This immaculate perfection could go to our heads

Attention to detail with so much room for connections
The sound of the buoy bell inspires reflections
Our hearts are full with friendship and laughter
And the kind of sweet memories we'll treasure long after.
Thank you! - Parched Nation

Sand n Surf Inn -- Our NEC reunion group has enjoyed our week in this great house.
WE love it here and plan on coming back in years to come. Thank you,
Pat R.

Your home here in York is beautiful. Our group was able to come together for meals and meetings and yet find cozy places to be alone. And of course, the setting is magnificent. Thank you for opening it up to groups like ours. God willing we'll be back!

A Fyfe Family Reunion - Scott Fyfe and Craig Fyfe (twin brothers) with their wives, sons, daughters, grandson and granddaughter. The house was nicely situated so that we all could come and go for the day as we pleased - hiking, walking, whale watching, short sands beach, Perkins Cove, Marginal Way, kayaking, paddle boarding, fishing, etc. But at night we came back together to share a meal and a card game or movie. Such a blessing! Will be back!

The Sand And Surf was more than a house for our family and friends. It was an opportunity to gather from all parts of the country and all age groups. Our family and friends celebrated my son's 1st birthday (9-12-15), my 30th birthday (9-7-15) and an early celebration of my husband's 40th birthday (12-25-15). But mostly, it was a celebration of life, love, and happiness. We had heard we almost were outbid for this house, but Ed was in our plans and he was nothing but accommodating to the utmost. We hope to return some day.

Review #12220754 "Another great vacation"

We just returned from a terrific week at Sand & Surf. It is a wonderful house for a large group. We had our children, spouses, grandchildren (16 total). The house just lends itself to large groups, so much room. Our favorite is probably the front porch. We eat dinner there every night. The sunsets are beautiful. We will be back again. Thank you Ed & Barbara for taking such good care of your house.

Review #7456931 "Work Retreat" - This is the second time we have used the Sand and Surf House for a work retreat, once in November and most recently in March. York off season is very quiet, but the house is lovely and warm and is the perfect location. There are enough bedrooms and bathrooms to offer privacy for co workers and the dining area made for a great meeting space. We love the house and Ed was wonderful to work with. We will be back again.

Review #6815016 "Comfort With A View!"

Every other year I plan a reunion for my siblings and I (with significant others 22). I searched for many months to find a house that would accommodate us comfortably ... the Sand and Surf was it!! From its large efficient kitchen that allowed us to prepare meals together, to the incredible front porch overlooking the ocean, the house had everything we needed. Easy walk to the beach or downtown shopping and close to the famous lighthouse and ice cream shop. Making the arrangements for the rental was made easy with Ed's help (the owner) and the immaculately clean environment made possible by the very pleasant Tina (the manager). We have stayed at several large houses over the past few years, the Sand and Surf was a great venue, comfortable, clean, convenient, and what a view! Thanks Ed, look forward to doing business with you again.

Review #6413162 "We Didn't Want to Leave!"

What an amazing location! The view from the front porch is breathtaking. Off to the right you can watch the sun rise over the ocean (which I did every morning from my bed, just looking out the window) and to the left you can watch the most amazing sunsets over the beach and town. It is a short and easy walk into town to enjoy the many wonderful restaurants, ice cream parlors and of course the daily stop at the arcade for the kids. We had family members ranging from kids to grandparents and we loved that there were things for everyone to enjoy. The house itself is beautiful as well. The kitchen has everything you could possibly need and the best ocean view location in town to eat your meal is your own front porch! The house was spotless! None of us wanted to leave! We can't wait to return to the Sand & Surf next year!

Christy

Our family spent a wonderful week at Sand & Surf. Location, location, location, it was perfect. We sat on the porch and looked out at the ocean. The beach and downtown are just a short walk. This house is enjoyable for all ages! Kids can play outside and in the rocks, adults can sit on the porch, and families can have breakfast by the sea. The picturesque house is in the perfect location, close to the town and seaside. It is just the right place to vacation in York Beach. Enjoy!
